

TOMÁS VP

STORYTELLER

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Hi there! For whatever reason, congratulations on being chosen as the next guest of Tomás VP Storyteller!

My name is Tomás and this crazy thing is my way of being happy. A podcast that works as an area of freedom: welcoming stories, thoughts and ideas of the ordinary citizen. Deep down, my point is to make people reflect on the importance of human relationships for our well-being, breaking the barriers of everyday communication through the stimulation of our curiosity. How? Telling your story. Talking, learning from you and who I meet along my journey...

I therefore present you the terms and conditions for participating in Tomás VP Storyteller:

- a) Being laid-back, open-minded and with critical spirit to express yourself as you like about whatever topic you want... So that you have fun with no taboo!
- b) Being curious, spontaneous without fear of taking risks, being surprised and, above all, living a different day to tell your family and friends!
- c) Accepting that photos and recording of yours may be shared only and only on Tomás VP Storyteller's exclusive digital platforms.
